Round 21 | 2024 - 2025 | Successful Applicants

Applicant	Project Title	Project Description	Special Conditions	Recommended Amount
Alison Mooney	Pilot Sketchbook	Public Sketchbook is an ephemeral art project connecting + upskilling Noosa's emerging public artists through the design + installation of a temporary, collaborative mural on Sunshine Beach public toilets.	In Phase 4: Mentoring in the Project Plan, the property owner must give final approval of the presentation selected by the project partners.	$7 500
Catbird Theatre Company PTY LTD	The Party		Please provide confirmation letters from all creatives involved that include: dates of engagement, confirmation of fees, and a statement confirming that they understand the value of the in-kind time they are donating. Artists should measure the value of their in-kind contribution based on MEEA award rates. A key requirement of RADF grants is that award standard rates are paid to artists. In the future, MEEA rates must be considered at the concept ideation stage of a project. Can this artistic vision be achieved within this budget scope? If not, how can the artistic vision be modified so that the project is viable? Alternatively, what other financial investments/grants/donations can be pursued to fulfill the artistic vision?	$7 500
Johanna Wallace t/a Little Seeds Theatre Company	Industry expert writes original work for emerging actors	Facilitate an industry professional in the process of writing an original play, in conjunction with emerging actors, to be workshopped and performed in community places and spaces.	N/A	$7 500
Simone Zarpelon Leao	A Noosa-Milan connection on textile art and fashion through Outer's new artwork	Simone Leao (aka Outer), a Noosa-based textile artist and fashion designer, will produce new work and showcase it at the Milan Fashion Week 2024 and solo exhibitions in regional Queensland.	Please confirm continued engagement with Noosa Open Studios and Wallace House showings after Milan Fashion Week. Sharing the learnings and/or artistic works created for Milan Fashion Week with the broader Noosa sector is essential to the project to demonstrate a benefit to the broader artistic community. If there are any variations to this aspect of the proposal, please nominate alternative exhibitions, public programs, or public workshops of similar reach.	$7 500
Tall Trees Art Inc.	Creative Youth Workshops	Creative Youth Workshops aimed at artists 17-25years leading up to the Tall Trees Art Exhibition - Cooran 2024, 21 and 22 September to encourage their participation in the event	N/A	$1 200
Visit Noosa Junction		The 'Love Junction' project heroes messages of love celebrating community, cultural diversity and inclusion through heart-shaped artworks created in artist-led workshops and community events culminating in beautiful, activated spaces.	Please provide details of confirmed school partners and list of artwork locations.	$5 500
